

Me Book Overview

2009-2010

Attention Mr. Bettes Fifth Grade Students!

This year as a part of your language arts grade you will be making a ME BOOK. Each Thursday you will be required to turn in a completed entry for your ME BOOK. Each topic is somehow related to your life. For example, you will be writing about the sports in which you participate or those you like to watch, you will describe your favorite place, and you will discuss your hobbies, etc. Each entry is worth ten points and will be evaluated on the following:

- ✓ Including your name
- ✓ Including a title
- ✓ Handing in the assignment on time
- ✓ Including a visual
- ✓ Including a border
- ✓ Following directions
- ✓ Length and content
- ✓ Neatness
- ✓ Proofreading
- ✓ Mounting on colored construction paper

Please note that in order hand the assignment in on time, it must be in the "Language Arts basket before the bell rings on Thursday Mornings--8:35 am (You can always hand in an assignment early.) You will need to complete the assignment and mount it on the colored construction paper you purchased as part of your school supplies before you turn it in on Thursday Morning. ☺

Each assignment will be described in class the Friday before it is due. Also, you have a log of assigned topics so that you can keep track of the assignments and when each is due. Each week, you will receive the score you earned on the ME BOOK assignment in order to record it on your log. However, I will keep both the entry and the checklist until May when all of your work will be bound into the final product and given to you in a book format.

Have fun with this! It's a book about you!
