Board organizes for New Year

The Board oversaw the Acceptance of Office and Oath of Office statements from Idith Almog and Randy Meyer, who were both re-elected to new four-year terms, as well as newly elected members Regina Neville and Lonni Skrentner.

The Board also held its annual election of officers. Randy Meyer was re-elected as chair. Additional election and appointment results are:

- Vice Chair — Idith Almog
- Clerk — Bert Ledder
- Treasurer — Peyton Robb
- Assistant Treasurer — Cathy Cella
- Assistant Clerk — Regina Neville
- Assistant Clerk — Lonni Skrentner

In other actions, the Board approved:

- Malloy, Montague, Karnowki, Radosevich & Co., P.A. for District Auditor.
- The Edina Sun-Current as Official Newspaper.
- Ratwik, Roszak, & Maloney, P.A. and J. Dennis O'Brian Law Office for Legal Counsel.
- U.S. Bank as the primary Designation of Depositories.

Board selects educational program/facility planning firm

The Board awarded a contract to World Architects for educational program/facility planning. The District sought a qualified firm to provide a facility plan that will improve the delivery of aligned services and programs. The Board Finance/Facility Committee interviewed four potential firms.

“The purpose of the effort is to assess and develop recommendations for our future facilities’ needs as the world of education continues to evolve,” said Superintendent Ric Dressen. “I am looking forward to several creative solutions for our District to consider.”
